NEW OFFICIAL ELKS

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES IMPRESSIVE AND LARGELY ATTENDED

One of the finest installation meetings that has ever been held by Glendale Lodge, No. 1289, B. P. O. E., took place Monday evening with an attendance of not less than three hundred local members and big delegations from L. A. 99, from Pasadena and Santa Monica, particularly the city last named which sent a delegation of about forty of its members headed by District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Brown who is a candidate for the presidency of the Elks' State Association.

The gathering was called to order by the retiring Exalted Ruler Cameron D. Thom, and present with him upon the rostrum were Past Exalted Rulers Peter L. Ferry, Stephen C. Packer, John Lawson, Bert P. Woodard, and Albert D. Pearce, Vice-President of the Elks' State Association, who had been appointed by District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Burke, of Santa Ana, to act as the installing officer. In that capacity he appointed to act as grand officers during the installation ceremonies, the following staff:

Grand Esteemed Leading Knight, Peter L. Ferry.

Grand Esteemed Loyal Knight, John Lawson.

Grand Esteemed Lecturing Knight, Stephen C. Packer.

Grand Esquire, Bert P. Woodard.

Grand Inner Guard, Norman Otis.

Grand Tiler, Dr. H. G. Martin.

Grand Trustee, John Roman.

Grand Secretary, Willis E. Heald.

By these acting grand officers the officers elected to serve the lodge during the coming year were installed as follows:

John H. Fanset, Exalted Ruler.

Alfred F. Priest, Esteemed Leading Knight.

Arthur H. Dibbern, Esteemed Loyal Knight.

James A. Apfel, Esteemed Lecturing Knight.

Charles J. Letts, Secretary.

Herman Nelson, Treasurer.

C. E. McPeck, Tiler.

Irving H. Oliver, Trustee.

As the respective officers were installed they were conducted to their chairs. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the meeting was turned over. Exalted Ruler Fanset, upon assuming the chair, was cheered to the echo and responded to greetings with one of the finest addresses the lodge has had the pleasure of hearing from one of its officers. He then appointed the following officers:

PROSPECTIVE RESIDENTS

E. E. Harwood, principal of the Cerritos Avenue School, is looking forward to the arrival of his parents from Missouri about the 20th of this month. They went to New York at Christmas time, but were recalled to Missouri by a tornado which tore down buildings on their farm, the restoration of which they had to superintend. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Miss Matilda Harwood, who is a teacher at Conway, Mo., and will be joined here in a short time after their arrival by another daughter, Miss Myrtle Harwood, who is teaching in Moscow, Idaho. The whole family will then be united in Glendale. They plan to remain six months and if they like Southern California as much as they expect they will, may locate permanently.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING

FORMER GLENDALE PASTOR IN SPLENDID NEW HOUSE OF WORSHIP

Rev. J. F. Humphrey, a former pastor of the Glendale First M. E. church, has been instrumental in providing a fine new house of worship for the congregation to which he ministers at Anaheim. The building cost, completed, with the ground on which it stands, $90,000. It is in the Italian renaissance style with white exterior. The auditorium seats 400 people, but when the adjoining Sunday School rooms, separated by movable partitions are opened up, the entire seating capacity is 1050. A handsome pipe organ was presented by two members of the congregation, and a very fine personage is a part of the general equipment. There are social and banquet halls, kitchen and office rooms also. The Sunday School department is equipped for full graded work, with special rooms for divisions and classes.

G. G. D. A. DINNER

STREET ELECTRIC SIGNS PURCHASED—NEED OF SEWERAGE SYSTEM URGED

The monthly dinner of the Greater Glendale Development Association was held in the White Inn last evening at 6:15 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by L. T. Rowley, president of the association, Glen Ely being present to perform his duties as secretary.

After dinner Dwight Stephenson, who is one of the candidates for office of City Trustee at the election April 12th, was called upon to make a few remarks. This gentleman spoke briefly as to his loyalty to the City of Glendale and declared he was ready to support any proposition that was for the good of the entire city.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of a municipal building on Brand boulevard at a preceding meeting, reported progress. The report was ordered placed on file.

A. G. Spohr, chairman of the committee, appointed at a preceding meeting to arrange for two electric street signs, one at Colorado street and San Fernando Road and the other at Brand boulevard and San Fernando Road, reported that he and his fellow committeemen had ordered the signs from the Greenwood Advertising Company, the price of the signs to be $695. Steps were taken immediately to add to the volunteer subscriptions for money to defray the expense of the signs and the installation of the same.

At this juncture it was recommended that the City of Glendale be asked to do temporary grading on West Broadway, near San Fernando Road, that the street may be put in a more attractive condition. It was also recommended that some necessary changes be made at Brand boulevard and San Fernando Road in the way of removing trees that may obstruct the view of the electric sign to be erected.

The question of urging that action be taken immediately by the trustees for providing a sewerage system for Glendale was taken up. Roy L. Kent, chairman of the Industrial Committee, read a proposed petition to the City Trustees asking that they do all within their power to co-operate with the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital Association in providing sewerage outlet for them before they enter upon the construction of their contemplated new building. The petition was passed among the members of the Association and it

GLENDALE FAR AHEAD IN PERMITS

From comments noted in various newspapers it seems that Glendale holds the record for building permits in March, not only for cities of its size, but for much larger ones. Pomona made considerable noise over its $92,000 in permits for March and Santa Ana over its $200,000, but not one city under 35,000 population, so far as noted, anywhere near approached Glendale's $282,000.

FOUR AT ONCE

COMBINED BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION AT F. H. ROBINSON HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Robinson of 139 North Glendale avenue was the scene of an unusual birthday celebration Sunday. Their sons, Geo. H. and Howard, Jr., and their grand-daughter, Lucille Reed, of Brea, all claim April 4th as their natal day and Mrs. A. M. Pratt, Mrs. Geo. H. Robinson's grandmother was born on April 5th, so it was decided to have one celebration for all four of them on Easter Sunday. A most satisfying 12 o'clock dinner was served to the assembled crowd on one long table decorated in pink and green. A huge birthday cake bearing four candles, one for each of the honorees, was the center of attraction. After a leisurely discussion of the good things provided to tempt the palate, the guests and home folks enjoyed an afternoon of motoring, viewing the many beautiful scenes with which Glendale is surrounded. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, their two daughters, Lois and Lucille, and sons, Bob and Joe, of Brea; Mr. and Mrs. Perry C. Dodge, Miss Laura Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Robinson, Mrs. A. M. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Robinson and Howard, Jr.

DEFEATED COMMUNISTS INTERNED

FLEE TO ZONE OF BRITISH OCCUPATION AND ARE THERE ROUNDED UP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, April 7.—More than two thousand troops of the defeated communist army have fled into the British zone of occupation where they were interned, a Coblenz dispatch said today. The French occupation of Offenbach, Homburg and Weisbaden has been completed.

NEW GERMAN MILITARY PLOT

CONSPIRACY TO MAKE GENERAL LUDENDORFF DICTATOR REVEALED IN MUNICH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, April 7.—A far-reaching military conspiracy paralleling in importance the Von Kapp insurrection, has been revealed in Munich, a News Agency dispatch from Berlin said today. The conspiracy included making General Ludendorff of Bavaria a dictator, and Dr. Heine economist chief, the dispatch said, adding that Heine is known as "the Bavarian separatist."

PRINCE OF WALES IN SAN DIEGO

WILL MAKE BUT ONE PUBLIC APPEARANCE THERE; DESTROYERS AND ARMY PLANES ON GUARD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN DIEGO, April 7.—The British small cruiser Renown with the Prince of Wales aboard, anchored off San Diego this morning. A reception committee immediately boarded the Renown and extended formal greetings to the prince. Alongside the Renown a big fleet of destroyers steamed. Overhead a squadron of thirteen army planes hovered. There will be but one public appearance of the prince and that will be at the Stadium at 4 o'clock. Both United States and British secret service men will be on guard.

SECOND ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY

BURGLARS AROUSE TOWN OF HYNES WHEN THEY SET OFF ALARM AT FIRST NATIONAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—A second attempt within six months to rob the First National Bank of Hynes was frustrated at 3:15 a. m. today after burglars had cut through a steel door with an acetylene torch. The heat from the torch set off a burglar alarm which aroused the entire population of the small town. The burglars made a hurried get away in an automobile before the police could reach the bank.

Four men are now serving terms in San Quentin penitentiary for the first attempted robbery which occurred last October. The police have arrested one man who they believe is implicated in the attempted robbery today.

ALLIED CONFERENCE IN LONDON

SUPREME COUNCIL WILL MEET TOMORROW TO DETERMINE ATTITUDE TOWARD FOCH'S ACTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

UNDATED DISPATCH.—The Supreme Council will meet in London tomorrow to consider the situation brought about by the French occupation of the German Rhine cities. At the conference the allied attitude toward Marshal Foch's action probably will be determined.

For the present the attitude of Great Britain and Italy apparently will be one of benevolent neutrality. Italy was reported to have decided to offer France moral support only. In the meantime the French were reported as preparing to extend the scope of their occupational movement, if they considered it necessary.

In the occupied zone the German people apparently viewed the French move with indifference, but in Berlin it has aroused violent protests.

The Ebert government announced it would continue its military movement against the Ruhr communists despite the French demand that troops in that zone be removed at once; and has sent notes to the allied governments protesting against French action.

Reichswehr troops were rounding up the last of the Ruhr communists. Pacification of the area appeared to be nearing completion.

ADMIRAL RODMAN TO THE DEFENSE

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The charges made by Admiral Sims that the American navy was unprepared when the U. S. entered the war were branded as an ill-advised and indiscrete attempt to discredit it, by Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander of the Pacific Fleet.

SMITH-BRENNAN

MARRIAGE OF POPULAR YOUNG BUSINESS MAN VERY LARGELY ATTENDED

One of the largest if not the most largely attended wedding ever celebrated in the Holy Family Catholic Church took place this morning at 8 o'clock, when Jesse E. Smith and Miss Margaret Brennan, of this city, were united in marriage with low mass and the full ceremonies of the church by Father James O'Neill. Every seat in the edifice was occupied, and outside were groups of friends who had to content themselves with what they could hear of the music which was exceptionally fine.

It was as unostentatious as such a church wedding could well be, and the bride, who was married in her going away gown, had but one attendant, Miss Alice Wright, of Los Angeles, H. F. McPherson supporting the groom as best man.

A beautiful floral setting had been provided. Tall Easter lilies adorned the altar at which the young people knelt, and ropes of greenery festooned the walls. The white enameled kneeling bench received its dedication, as it was provided by the groom and was his gift to the church as a memorial of his wedding.

Mrs. Andrew Keller presided at the piano and played the wedding marches to which the bridal party entered and left the church, and there were several vocal numbers, Miss Carr of San Pedro singing "O Promise Me," and Miss Stella Gies "Ave Marie."

At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy pair received the greetings and congratulations of Father O'Neill, who announced the gift of the groom to the church. Mr. Smith had made very definite and seemingly perfect arrangements for a speedy get-away with his bride. The limousine reserved for them was to be waiting before the door, they would hop into it and be whirled away too swiftly for pursuit. But his friends had other plans. Many of them had experienced the kind (?) offices of the groom when they themselves renounced bachelorhood and they proposed to get even this time. Accordingly the passage was blocked by large logs which so far filled the doorway that but one thoroughfare was open to the bridal car. That was thoroughly hemmed in by a guard of auto cars including the service wagon of the Ford Agency filled with employees. There was no course open to the newlyweds but to enter their car which had been decorated in accordance with the time-honored custom with old shoes, rice and tin can trailers intended to advertise their approach. Fortunately they entered into the spirit of the jest and surrendered themselves to their friends who so completely surrounded their auto it was forced to take the course dictated. A spectacular run was made down Broadway past the Ford Agency and north on Brand until at Wilson avenue the captive car made its escape and was able to head for Los Angeles.

In the Angel City a wedding breakfast to be served at the Los Angeles Athletic Club awaited the bridal party which included besides Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brennan, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, Thomas B. Smith, his brother, and Miss Henry, of Detroit, the house guest of Mrs. Smith.

On their return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to their friends at 411 Fairview avenue.

BINE SMITH AND WIFE GREET OLD FRIENDS

Bine Smith of the Broadway Auto Sales Company was greatly pleased yesterday when two old friends, Chester Shafer and wife of San Francisco, drove up in front of the store and called him out. They are touring the Southland and visiting Mrs. Shafer's mother, who lives in Los Angeles. On Saturday they will go down to San Diego, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, staying over Sunday.

STACY-BAKELY

There was a wedding last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Walter E. Dampf, 1443 Rock Glen avenue. Mrs. Dampf's sister, Mrs. Marguerite Bakely, was wedded to Frank Stacy. Both are of Los Angeles. After a short honeymoon trip they will go to housekeeping in Los Angeles.

WILL HAVE SHOW PLACE

H. S. WEBB MAKES EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS TO PROPERTY RECENTLY ACQUIRED

H. S. Webb, the dry goods man, has moved into the beautiful home he purchased some time ago from V. Rice Brown, at 303 North Louise, and which he has been improving extensively since it came into his hands. He has put more than $3000 into these improvements, nearly all of which has been paid into the hands of Glendale workmen and dealers and he has thus expended the money made in Glendale among his fellow citizens. He has equipped the house with new fixtures and with new furniture made to his order. All of the rooms have been redecorated, a well-defined color scheme being carried out. Thus one room is finished harmoniously throughout in French gray, another in silver, another in gold and so on. The grounds, which are 75x150 in extent, will be improved on a definite plan by a professional landscape gardener.

With Mr. Webb is his mother, Mrs. Frankie A. Webb, who will look after the home for him. He says he is mighty glad to be located in Glendale at last.

LITERARY SECTION

Members of the Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club again met at the home of Mrs. Frank Ayars on North Orange St. for their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, the curator, was present and will entertain the section at its next meeting.

The program included a comprehensive paper on China by Annie E. Williams. This covered the geography, history, literature, customs and language of the country.

Mrs. Catherine Burnham gave an equally interesting paper on current events in general covering literature, religion and art. Mrs. Frank Brown reading a paper on current events in science and invention.

A fine talk on the new era in poetry was made by Mrs. H. L. Baker, who read a few selections to illustrate the points made. Poetry of the war was especially emphasized.

There was an excellent attendance and it was a highly profitable session.

ENTERTAINS COLLEGE CHUM

Miss Charlotte Alspaugh, who has been the guest for two or three weeks of Mrs. Frank Ayars, of N. Orange street, is leaving Friday for New Orleans where she will attend the National Welfare Workers' Convention. She is taking a vacation after strenuous work in a responsible position in connection with the Red Cross in Tacoma, Washington, her home being in a suburb of that city at Puyallup. After leaving New Orleans she will make quite an extensive tour of Alabama, Illinois, Wisconsin, New York and Pennsylvania. She and Mrs. Ayars were college chums and members of the same sorority.

THE OLIVE SCARE

VISITOR RECENTLY RETURNED FROM EAST TELLS OF EXCITEMENT

A young lady who recently returned from an extended visit in Tennessee and Mississippi talked interestingly of the scare in Memphis over poisoned olives that have been recently traced as having come from one certain grove in California. She said the matter was greatly exaggerated in the newspapers for just one family in Memphis was affected and seven of its members died. It was found that the olives they ate were spoiled and so putrid that it was a wonder anyone would eat of them. Only one more bottle of them than those partaken of by the fated family were found on the grocer's shelves and these were in an advanced stage of decomposition. The grandfather of the boys who died had been visiting them and started for his home in Seattle, Wash., a day or two before the poisoning, read an account of the fatality on the train before he had reached his destination.

There was an immediate and complete abstaining from the use of olives in Memphis and other large cities in the East while the scare was on, but the excitement was about over when the young lady left and the use of olives had been resumed.

GOVERNMENT AND FREE SPEECH

The right to express one's honest opinions and convictions freely in public utterance and through the press is a right which every civilized government ought to recognize for its own good.

What are the conditions under which this right should be exercised and be protected?

1. Every citizen has the right to free speech when his utterance is made, not in attacking a government or destroying it, but with a good plan to reform it. No criticism of existing bad conditions is worth anything, unless it is positive instead of negative, and has some better plan to suggest.

2. The right to free speech should be protected by the government when the verbal utterance and the press are voicing great fundamental human needs that are not being met by the existing local or national government.

I have never believed that any government had any right under any condition to repress free speech, if a great wrong needed to be righted. Expediency should never have the right of way over justice.

Free speech as defined above is the safety valve of the people and the progressive motive power of the government. To repress it and to pass laws forbidding honest convictions, when those convictions are evidently intended to heal the wounds of the body politic, is to repeat the stupidity of Napoleon, who tried to choke the life out of the press of France. It left France without a voice to speak except through the Napoleonic megaphone.

The government did well in deporting a shipload of "Reds" for their abuse of free speech. It would also do well to deport several shiploads of "black" profiteers whose actions speak louder than all the free speech of platform or press.—Exchange.

The Chandler Motor Car Company has just issued a most interesting pamphlet entitled, "How Chandler Checks with High Priced Cars," showing in an entertaining way seven of the distinctive mechanical features of the Chandler that are found only, if at all, outside of the Chandler, in high priced automobiles such as Pierce Arrow, Packard, Fiat, Marmon and Locomobile.

Bartlett & French, who sell the Chandler in this territory, will be glad to send copies of the pamphlet, so long as the supply lasts, to parties who will make a request for them by phone or mail. Their phone number is Glendale 1667.

WOULD END LIQUOR TRADE ALONG U. S.-MEXICAN LINE

(By United Press)
MEXICO CITY (By Mail).—Mexico's embarrassing position—that of having a dry neighbor to the north of her—has no end of worries.

Reports of smuggling difficulties continue, booze threatening to supplant the place of arms and munitions as a source of contraband trouble. The latest American complaint, however, instead of coming from the border, is voiced by the officials of Galveston, New Orleans and other Gulf ports. Sailors on tankers and other steamers from Mexico, they declare, are acting as "booze agents" and are carrying liquor across the gang plank when they are granted shore leave.

Mexican authorities have been asked to co-operate with the Americans in suppressing this practice, so that henceforth, according to an announcement made here today, every effort will be made to strip Mexican sailors of bottled goods before they leave home ports for the United States.

Fear is expressed here, following the receipt of communications from Mexican consuls in the United States, that the producers of wood alcohol and other forms of pseudo-whiskey in the States, hard pressed by American Federal authorities, will attempt to dispose of their fake stocks in Mexico and other Latin-American countries. The Mexicans don't want these bogus goods—they have plenty of the genuine article—so the border and port authorities have been instructed to maintain a sharp lookout for anything that scents of imitation booze.

General Ignacio Enriquez, head of the Social Defense League in Chihuahua and candidate for the governorship of that border state, offers a remedy for the international booze problem.

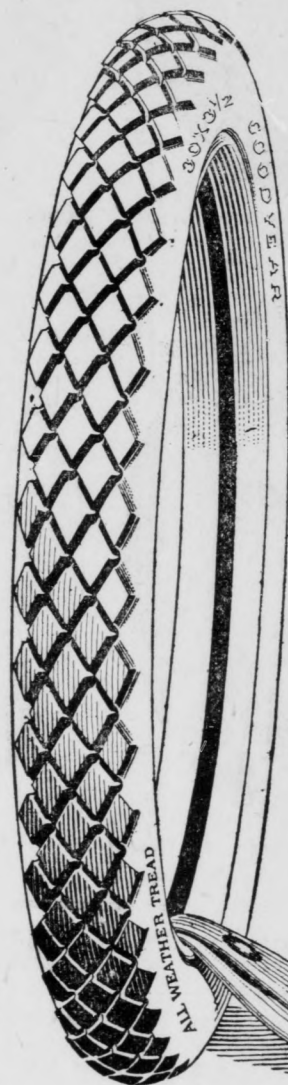

"Make the border dry," says Enriquez, "the Mexican as well as the American side." Whereupon violent protests are heard, both from Mexican and American sources.

"It is a blow to my pride as a Mexican," Enriquez says, "that Americans should look upon Mexico as a place where their worst vices may be satisfied. I am not a teetotaler, but if I become governor of Chihuahua, every saloon, gambling den and house of prostitution on the Chihuahua border will be closed." Enriquez is a graduate of the University of Illinois.

The men of the Methodist church at Anaheim held a clean-up bee at the church one afternoon recently, cleaning off all the weeds in the church yard while the ladies kept them refreshed with sandwiches and innocent drinks. The motto of the preacher was, "Hoe every one that thirsteth."

One problem that ought to be settled by the electric light men when they hold their national convention in Pasadena next month, is who really built the arc.

CROWING ROOSTERS AND EGOTISTICAL MEN

A Hemet correspondent advises the people who are agitated over roosters crowing so early in the morning, to go to bed with the chickens, so they will have enough sleep by the time the roosters begin to worry the neighborhood. That would be one way to solve the complaint—arrange everything to suit the convenience of the noisy old roosters. But we doubt if even trying to be a chicken would keep a fellow from being worried by the early crowing of the roosters. We have a suspicion that the hens themselves, if ever consulted by the roosters—which doubtless they are not—would prefer to snooze an hour or two longer on the perch if the rangy old bats would keep quiet long enough to let them. The hens do most of the work during the day, lay the eggs, raise the families and yet the roosters, just like many men, do most of the strutting and bragging, and assert their self-assumed authority by routing out all the other members of the tribe long before daylight, just because they themselves haven't done enough work during the day to need a full night's sleep. If the hens ever get their heads together they will do like their human sisters and organize suffrage and hens' rights societies, and then they will pass a barnyard ordinance against crowing before 6.30 a. m., and the whole chicken family, as well as the human family will be happier as a result. It was always a temptation to us as a boy to swat a rooster on the back with a green apple or a clod just as he was in the midst of a heavy, gurgling crow and we have always had something of the same feeling when we heard a man strut and crow about himself, like a rooster. Maybe their crowing is necessary to help keep up the average of egotism and selfishness in the breed, but why they should be permitted to indulge it in the morning when sensible and hardworking chickens and people want to sleep, is beyond us.

A Verdugo Road man dreamed one night that 400 automobiles went past his house at the same time. It might have been only a motorcycle passing in the night however.

The national convention of electric light men will be held in Pasadena in May. To be consistent it ought to be held at Watts.

NEW OFFICIAL ELKS

A. L. Ferguson, Inner Guard.

Earl Patterson, Esquire.

James F. McBryde, Chaplain.

This was followed by the announcement that the committees would be named next Monday night and that the inaugural ball would take place Saturday evening, April 24th.

Present and participating in the exercises were the two holdover trustees, H. E. White and Francis E. Gilman.

Past Exalted Rulers present were called upon and responded with brief but excellent speeches. District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Brown was also called upon and he in turn made a fine address in which he announced his candidacy for the presidency of the State Association. By formal action the lodge endorsed his candidacy.

Another item of business was the election of Past Exalted Ruler Thom to be the delegate of the lodge at the meeting of the Grand Lodge to be held in Chicago July 5th.

All the newly elected officers were called upon after Exalted Ruler Fanset had spoken, and each acquitted himself creditably. The assembly was notable in the fact that nine charter members were present as follows: Peter L. Ferry, Stephen C. Packer, David L. Gregg, Dr. H. G. Martin, Willis M. Kimball, George T. Paine, John H. Fanset, John Lawson and R. D. Clements.

The reports submitted showed that Exalted Ruler Thom's administration closes the biggest, most successful year the lodge has ever experienced, four hundred new members having been initiated during his term of office. The organization anticipates an even greater gain during the coming year.

At the conclusion of the exercises the Elks adjourned to the jinks room where they enjoyed a fine supper and an excellent program furnished by professional entertainers from Los Angeles.

It was the second "refreshment" of the evening for some of the members, for, preceding the installation exercises, a dinner in honor of the incoming officers was given by outgoing officials in the banquet hall of the club, a six-course function prepared by Walter Butterly and Joe Fortunato, who did themselves proud and served a feast worthy of royalty.

John H. Fanset

John H. Fanset, who now fills the highest office in the gift of the lodge, has for some time been recognized as a "coming man" and his inaugural address confirmed members in the wisdom of their choice. His history is well known to most of his fellows in the order as he was a charter member of the lodge. He was born in 1882 in North Dakota and after spending sixteen years in that cold climate came to Southern California and joined his parents in ranching which occupation he resigned to engage in the business of cleaning and dyeing which he is now conducting in Los Angeles.

Alfred F. Priest

It seems peculiarly fitting that the Glendale Lodge should honor the man who was the architect of its beautiful Club House by electing him to the high office of Esteemed Leading Knight. He has been a member of the organization for about five years. Born in the middle west at Pierce, Nebraska, in 1887, his boyhood was spent for the most part in Davenport, Iowa, but in 1904 he came to San Francisco. He has resided in Glendale for seven years with offices in Los Angeles.

Arthur H. Dibbern

This popular member of the lodge who has been made Esteemed Loyal Knight, like so many Southern Californians was born in Iowa, first seeing the light of day June 20, 1888. Twelve years later he and his parents came to Southern California and for eleven years he has resided in Glendale. He is a valued employee of the jewelers, Brock & Company, in their manufacturing department.

James A. Apffel

The man selected to fill the office of Esteemed Lecturing Knight was born in New Orleans in 1886. He did not remain in the sunny south but came to California and established his home on Valley View Road, Glendale. He is a manufacturing jeweler doing business in Los Angeles.

Charles J. Letts

The new secretary of the lodge, Charles J. Letts, has the distinction of claiming Henly on the Thames as the place of his birth, which occurred June 18, 1868. When he was but five years of age his parents migrated to this country and he considers himself very much of the U. S. A., in fact, has been an employee of the government under the Railroad Administration as a traveling freight and passenger agent. He has been a resident of California 20 years and has lived in Glendale for nine years. Ever since May 12, 1913, he has belonged to the local lodge and is one of its most interested, loyal members.

Herman Nelson

Herman Nelson has so long and efficiently served the organization as treasurer that there is never any question about a candidate for this office. He, too, was born in Iowa, at Forest City, he says, about forty years ago. Early in life he decided that banking was the business of his preference and he has never changed his mind but has always been loyal to his first choice. Nine years ago he came to California and identified himself with the Bank of Glendale with which he has ever since remained.

C. E. McPeck

The man just elected to the office of Tiler has been a member of the lodge for about six years. He was born in Columbus, Ohio, in 1860, and came to Los Angeles in 1884. Ever since that date he has been engaged in the plumbing business and eighteen of those years have been spent in Glendale.

A. L. Ferguson

The man chosen to serve the lodge as Inner Guard, A. L. Ferguson, was born in Cedar county, Iowa, 34 years ago. He was graduated from Cornell and came to California in 1910. He taught in the Santa Barbara and Sacramento High Schools and for five years has been a member of the faculty of Glendale Union High School. He joined the local lodge April 9, 1917.

James F. McBryde

The Chaplain appointed Monday night, James F. McBryde, was born in Georgia. He came to California about seven years ago and has lived in Glendale ever since except during the period of the war, for he is an ex-service man. He is an attorney-at-law and has been in practice about five years, having offices in Glendale and Los Angeles.

Earl Patterson

The man appointed to the office of Esquire, Earl Patterson, was born in Collinswood, N. J., March 19, 1892. He joined the lodge February 10, 1919, and is described as "a confirmed bachelor."

Irving H. Oliver

Irving H. Oliver, elected a trustee of the lodge, was born in Amherst, Mass., but when a mere boy moved with his parents to New Jersey. Fourteen years ago he came to Glendale and about five years ago, under the administration of John Lawson, joined the local Elks' Lodge, as No. 395. He is the business manager of Glendale Union High School, and is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

Francis E. Gilman

Francis E. Gilman, one of the holdover trustees, is a native son who was born in San Jose. His boyhood and early manhood was spent in the bay cities. He came to Southern California six years ago and in 1918 joined the Glendale Lodge. For more than twenty years he has been in the stationery business and is now connected with a Los Angeles firm.

H. E. White

H. E. White, who is one of the holdover trustees of the lodge, is a Hoosier, who says he was born at Crawfordsville, Ind., in September, 1874. He early turned his back upon his native state, coming to California in 1881. Ever since that date he has been a resident of Los Angeles county and has contributed in a variety of ways to its upbuilding. He was for a number of years a horticulturist in the La Canada Valley, then became a real estate operator and subdivided Flint Ridge. Succumbing to the lure of the speed wagons he associated himself two and a half years ago with Stephen Packer, another good Elk, in the Packer & White Automobile Agency in this city.

DRAWING THE LINE

One day after the civil war a man who was riding through the farming districts in the Middle West stopped by the wayside to talk with a farmer. Several men were working in the field, and the traveler was interested to learn that most of them had been soldiers in the war, and that among them were some who had been officers.

"That man over there," said the farmer, "happens to have been a private, but the man next to him was a corporal; that chap over there was a major, and over in the next field is a man who was a colonel."

"Indeed," said the traveler. "What kind of workmen are they?" "Well," said the farmer, "the private is a first-class man, and the corporal is a pretty good worker." "How about the major?" "He's about so-so."

"But the colonel?" persisted the traveler. "Well," said the farmer, "I ain't a-goin' to say a word against any man that fit in the war to save the union, but I notify you right here and now that I ain't goin' to hire no brigadier-generals!"—Salt Lake Tribune.

When we build, let us think that we build forever. Let it not be for present life, nor present use alone; let it be such work as our descendants will thank us for.—Ruskin.

JAPANESE INVASION

SANITARY CONDITIONS IN COUNTRY DISTRICTS PROBLEM FOR SUPERVISORS

No question of modern times presents a problem of such magnitude as the Japanese invasion of rural districts. At least this is the opinion of Supervisor Jonathan S. Dodge.

"The Board of Supervisors," said he, "are ever watchful regarding the sanitary conditions of country territory, and have endeavored in every way to safeguard the health of the community and protect the food produced and sold to the people who live in the cities. Eighty-five per cent of the foodstuffs raised in country districts are handled by the Japanese race, and inasmuch as most of this food is eaten raw, it calls for the passage of strict ordinances governing sanitation both on the farms and in the food stores."

"Most of the Japanese population can be found in five congested districts of the county,—Redondo district, Montebello district, Covina district, El Monte district, and in the vicinity of the cities of Long Beach and San Gabriel. The Japanese problem affects farming communities largely, and there is certainly a strong feeling in California that the rich acres of California soil should never be permitted to fall into the ownership of an alien race."

"In the unincorporated territory of Los Angeles county during the past five years there were 2264 births among the Japanese people, and surprising to relate, this represents 28 per cent of the total births for that entire district. The more surprising fact, however, is that during the five-year period the Japanese births increased from 19 per cent of the total births, to 28 per cent, or a gain of 9 per cent, and during this same period the percentage of white births fell from 66 per cent of the total to 52 per cent of the total, a direct loss of 14 per cent. It is evident that in time, if these percentages continue, the farming communities will be entirely settled by the Japanese, and white residents will be as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth."

ALL REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY

A Pasadena man has invented berths similar to those used in Pullman cars, to be used as sleeping quarters in homes, to save room. Unless his device is six inches too short to sleep in, too hot and stuffy to breathe in, too crowded to undress or dress in, too public to be modest in, and too rough and rolling to get any rest in, it won't seem like the real thing. And then, how can he substitute anything that will take the place of the sweaty porter and the morning tip to take the place of the wages that the Pullman Company won't pay him? It just can't be done that's all. If it doesn't include all of the above horrors it will seem too much like home, and will never sell.

A man at Santa Barbara died at a ripe old age it is reported. And over at South Pasadena a man died at a green old age. And they were about the same age. So what does the qualifying adjective indicate? Condition for use in the future life, or what?

LIQUOR MAKERS ARRESTED IN BURBANK

Our neighboring city, Burbank, is making a determined effort to stamp out boot-legging and illicit stills. Internal Revenue agents yesterday arrested Frank Salvaras and S. Revilla, who had sold a quart of brandy to Marshal Catlin for $4. On their premises was found a still, a quantity of mash and other ingredients used in distilling, and quite a lot of liquor. They were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long and gave bond for their appearance.

Mrs. Charles Bartow has moved to her new home at 420 West Myrtle street from the property she recently sold at 352 West Lexington.

Among the building permits taken out yesterday was one for a 6-room house at 432 North Jackson, to be built by F. W. Pigg at a cost of $5000.

J. W. Stadt is building a garage at 519 North Orange for a temporary residence and will build the home later. The garage is to cost $300.

Rev. W. B. Thompson, wife and son of the Cypress Park Christian Church were over to attend the revival meeting at Central Christian last night.

Mrs. S. E. Hoopes has sold her residence property at 564 West Colorado to M. G. Musser and wife, formerly of 339 West Windsor Road, who will take possession at once.

Miss Violet Turner of North Jackson street has just returned from a business trip to San Francisco where she spent about two weeks very pleasantly, enjoying her journey both going and coming.

C. W. Angier recently sold his residence property at 1011 South Columbus avenue and bought fifteen acres near La Crescenta, where he will put up buildings and occupy it as a home.

L. E. Maxwell, who some weeks ago bought three acres on West Doran not far from the San Fernando Road, yesterday took out a permit for building a garage and adding two sleeping porches to the house.

Miss Dorothy Salyer of 1011 Melrose avenue returned Sunday from Santa Ana where she spent the week-end visiting her cousin, Virginia Whitmer. While there she attended a house party, composed of six girls, at Balboa Beach, chaperoned by Mrs. Thomas of Santa Ana.

George Bohannon is moving from the place he sold to Mrs. Cunningham at 325 West Myrtle street to a new home he has built across the street. Mrs. Cunningham has leased the place he is vacating for one year to a Los Angeles tenant who is moving in today.

G. B. Woodberry and wife have decided to start making a home again, but this time they will build the garage first and live in it until the residence can be completed. The location is 543 North Jackson. A few months ago they had a beautiful home built in that neighborhood but sold it before completion.

Mrs. C. L. Peckham of 615 North Central avenue took two little girls from El Retiro home near San Fernando and kept them over Sunday. They had a merry time hunting Easter eggs and enjoying the hospitality of the home. This example is worth following by other Glendale families.

La Frivolite Club met last evening at the home of Louise Hoit, 128 North Adams. The evening was spent in needlework. Next week they are planning a food sale, the proceeds to be used for charitable purposes. Refreshments of cocoa, sandwiches and cake were served. Those present were Elizabeth Edmonds, Margaret West, Viola Budd, Betty Cadd and Louise Hoit.

Mr. and Mrs. David Black and daughter, Esther, of 1450 Kenneth Road, motored to Riverside Sunday to attend the Easter Sunrise service on Mt. Rubidoux. Miss Maude Soper was their guest. Returning they stopped at Azusa and attended a beautiful Easter service at the Presbyterian church of that place. The pastor, Rev. Schiffer, is a personal friend of Mr. Black.

Mrs. M. Cadd of 102-A E. Broadway with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Davidson, Mrs. M. Davidson, and Miss Margaret Canfield, of Des Moines, Iowa, who have been spending the winter in Southern California, motored to San Diego, leaving early Sunday morning and returning Monday night. They visited all the different places in and around San Diego, including Tia Juana, which they found very lively on account of the horse races. They also found it very warm.

DEATH OF MRS. HARWOOD'S BROTHER

Mrs. E. E. Harwood, of Cypress avenue, is grieving over the recent death of her brother, Elmer Ray Hoskins, at Minneapolis, where he was teaching physiology in the University of Minnesota. He was formerly on the staff of Endo-Chronology, a magazine published in Glendale and devoted to scientific subjects. His brother was managing editor of the publication and Paul C. Mason, of this city, was connected with it, also. The cause of young Hoskins' death was bronchial pneumonia. He was an unusually intelligent young man and seemingly had a brilliant future before him.

NOVEL FUNCTION

MRS. J. L. FLINT ENTERTAINS
FOR MISS GLADYS JUSTEMA
IN UNUSUAL WAY

A quite informal but very pretty function which proved to be a surprise miscellaneous shower for Miss Gladys Justema, was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. L. Flint at her home at 619 North Central avenue. When the guest of honor arrived she was invited to ascend the stairs to remove her wraps and was ushered into a bedroom there to find a lovely floral presentation of the many beautiful gifts brought to her by the assembled guests who had followed in her wake to view the surprise. The hostess had provided a decided novelty by making a pink rope canopy above her four-post bedstead which was hung with white wistaria bloom centered with a shower of pink Madame Chatney roses. On the counterpane below the gifts were disposed, daintily wrapped in white tissue paper tied with ribbon and orange bloom.

For the floral decoration of her home Mrs. Flint had employed lilies, carnations and rosebuds, and the pink and white color scheme was repeated in the dainty refreshments served at the close of the afternoon on individual trays which bore the favors, gold-rimmed bon bon baskets filled with nuts and candies and tied with a spray of orange blossom.

An all too short afternoon was devoted to needlework, the ladies present being: Miss Gladys Justema, guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. William Justema, Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, mother of Miss Justema's fiancé, Mrs. Richard Wells, mother of the hostess, her house guest, Mrs. Sporeder, of Colorado, Mrs. Charles U. Wells, Mrs. Fay G. Stone, Mrs. Gus H. Pulliam, Mrs. Seymour Smith, Mrs. John G. Huntley, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Frank Dudley, Mrs. John E. Logan, Mrs. John Hobbs, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mrs. Dorothy Lee Weller, Mrs. Geo. V. Meserole of Long Beach, and Miss Dorothy Hobbs.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. U. Wells, and Mrs. Fay G. Stone.

NINTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Mrs. Francis E. Gilman of 320 Vine street was hostess at a very delightful little surprise party to celebrate the ninth birthday of her little daughter, Barbara Anna Gilman. That the honoree might not suspect anything she was permitted to visit her friend, Alta Rettberg. Mr. Gilman called for his daughter and brought her and her little hostess to the Gilman home where they found guests awaiting them. Cherokee roses and other flowers suitable for the carrying out of a pink color scheme had been used in decoration and a very pretty setting provided for the festivity, which took place Friday afternoon. Games were played, one of the most interesting being the pinning on of the tail of the Easter rabbit by the blindfolded players. The prize was won by Maxine Heasley. Another contest

PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE NOTES

The office force of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists had a pleasant outing in Topanga Canyon and at Santa Monica Beach, Easter. Four automobile loads left Glendale between 10 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and reached the summit of Topanga pass about noon. They lunched at a beautiful scenic spot in the canyon, then continued the journey to the beach. There they unexpectedly found Dr. C. A. Burrows, and family, from Glendale, also enjoying the salt water and the ocean breeze. In the party were the following: Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Emerson, and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Painter, and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ruble, and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Raley, and family; Mr. Delmont L. Sturges; Miss Winifred Sturges; Miss Violet Bell, Miss Lavina Conner, Master Percy Christian, and F. A. Coffin.

Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, in company with Elder J. L. McElhany, of Riverside, president of the Southeastern California Conference of the Adventists, and Elder G. W. Wells, of Oakland, president of the California Conference, left Glendale about two weeks ago for Washington, D. C., to attend the Spring Council of the General Conference. Elder Christian is expected to return Friday.

Elder W. F. Martin, of the General Conference of the Adventists, who for more than a month has been in Oregon and Washington, attending the sessions of the North Pacific Union Conference, and meeting with the churches in those states, returned to Glendale last Sunday, but left the same day for Chula Vista, where Mrs. Martin is visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Elder and Mrs. R. G. Schaffner. Elder and Mrs. Martin expect to return to Glendale Thursday.

F. E. Painter is spending a few days at the San Fernando Academy, San Fernando.

W. C. Raley, auditor of the Pacific Union Conference, left yesterday for Riverside, where he is checking the books of the Southeastern California Conference.

Elder J. Adams Stevens, home missionary secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, returned Monday from Arizona, where he spent ten days meeting with the Adventist churches of that state.

Prof. W. W. Ruble, executive secretary of the Young People's Society of Missionary Volunteers for the Pacific Coast, will leave Glendale Friday for Fresno, where he will conduct a young people's convention.

seemed to meet with the unanimous approval of all members present. C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, was present and spoke briefly upon the plans of their proposed new building and stated that everything was in readiness to begin work as soon as their Board of Directors became satisfied that the sewage would be taken care of by the city.

George E. Dailey, W. E. Hewitt, Roy L. Kent, L. T. Rowley, all of whom had been in attendance at the convention of the League of the Southwest, spoke very enthusiastically of what they had learned at that convention. These gentlemen all declared that the City of Los Angeles and surrounding country would be greatly benefited by the harnessing of the Colorado River as planned by the promoters of this League.

Among those in attendance at last evening's meeting were Eugene E. Gordon, David Gregg, W. B. Kirk, W. E. Hewitt, W. A. Kulp, J. E. Peters, C. E. Kimlin, A. T. Hopman, R. L. Kent, L. T. Rowley, A. T. Cowan, Glen Ely, A. G. Spohr, Dr. F. S. Goodno, W. A. Howe, G. E. Daley, T. W. Watson, V. M. Hollister, J. D. Finch, C. E. Neale, H. M. Butts, Robert Plume, C. W. Kent, James Webb, C. C. Cooper, A. W. Tanner, G. H. Bentley, J. R. Bentley, R. M. Brown, J. G. Huntley, Dwight Stephenson, J. W. Stauffacher, J. N. Fife, E. P. Hayward.

The next dinner of the Association will be held the first Tuesday in May.

OUR CHEMICAL INDEPENDENCE

One of the little known by-products of the war has been the advance in the United States of the manufacture of medicines. Once we were obliged to buy most of these supplies abroad, from Germany usually, and, since we had to have them at any price, the Germans charged us outrageously. Some of these chemicals used to cost $70 an ounce, so that a single dose might cost $10. When the supply ceased at the beginning of the war our own chemists set to work to discover the secrets. Years of work followed, but today there is scarcely a chemical product we cannot manufacture for ourselves, and usually at a low price. The medicine which used to cost $10 a dose now costs one dollar.—March Boys' Life.

CHANDLER SIX

The Most Closely Priced Fine Car

We Let You Know What The Chandler Price Is

THE Chandler Motor Car Company, ever since the first Chandler Car was built seven years ago, has, in every advertisement issued to newspapers and magazines and all other forms of publications, stated the list price of the Chandler Car.

It states it now and will continue to do so. There is good reason for this and many thousands of motor car owners know it. This is the reason—The Chandler Six is the most closely priced fine car in the whole medium priced field.

Look through the pages of this paper or a magazine that may be lying on your table. There are probably from ten to twenty automobile advertisements. How many name the price of the car?

True, the cost of automobile production has increased in the past year, and it is still increasing. But the Chandler Company, throughout 1919, with all its production greatly oversold, held to its price.

The Chandler Six of today is a highly perfected development of the Chandler Six seven years ago, which started the trend toward lightweight sixes. All the engineering skill and production efficiency at the command of the Chandler Company has been devoted to this one chassis and that fact is one of the reasons for the Chandler's leadership in its field today.

All Chandler bodies are mounted on the one standard Chandler chassis. Simple, sturdy and dependable throughout, its features embrace, as for years past, the really marvelous Chandler Motor, solid cast aluminum motor base, annular ball bearings, silent chain drive for the auxiliary motor shafts, and Bosch magneto ignition.

MONEY IN CAMPAIGNS

If a sensational charge is made in the United States senate it gets publicity—the widest sort of publicity. Senator Borah knew that when he accused General Wood and Governor Lowden of corrupting the Republican campaign with money. Before any voter jumps off the high bridge let him ask himself a few questions.

Is it important that candidates should be presented to the people? If so, how is it to be done?

Is it permissible for a candidate to address personal letters to the voters? It would cost a half million dollars to send one letter to each voter of the United States.

Is it permissible to hold public meetings? That involves hall rent, printing, bands, etc. Is it permissible for speakers to travel from place to place—at more expense? Is it permissible to maintain headquarters, use legitimate advertising, get out printed matter, hire men to distribute it, employ necessary organization workers, etc.? It all costs money—hundreds of thousands of dollars—and it may be that not a cent of it is spent for any other purpose than that of giving the voters a chance to look the candidate over.

Is it permissible to employ watchers at the polls to see that primaries and elections are not stolen?

What are the alternatives to these expensive public campaigns? One, that a combine, with very little money spent legitimately, will control without letting the voters in at all. Another is that the public officials paid with public money, affiliated with political organizations, will control through the offices which they hold for the public.

There is not much money spent in popular campaigns in the south. Under a Republican administration the federal officeholders bring in the delegates. Under a Democratic administration the Democratic officeholders bring in the delegates.

Money is used. It is public money. It pays the salaries of the officeholders. The officeholders keep their places and draw their salaries by delivering the delegates. It is only by a popular campaign, in states in which it is possible, that this oligarchy, maintained by public money, can be overthrown. Money for a popular campaign is raised by supporters of the candidate. A federal officeholder will make the campaign for the administration candidate for the money the public pays him.

Bryan is a politician who constantly campaigns and keeps up his following because he is constantly touring and talking and making money out of it. Henry Ford can make a campaign because he has an agency in every town and the agent will sell both Henry and the henries to the people.

BE INDEPENDENT

The "ups" and "downs" in life come to everybody.

Right now while you are making money, you ought to be saving it.

Then when the downs come you will have something to fall back upon.

Start an account at this bank today.

Be independent.

The First National Bank

Glendale, Cal.

A popular campaign requires money and popular campaigns are necessary. Money can be used legitimately for a bad purpose. Therefore the voters are entitled to know the source of it. It can be used legitimately for a good purpose and yet reach enormous figures.

When Borah says that enormous sums of money are being spent he knows that he says something which need not at all have the malignant meaning which he wants the people to read into it.—Chicago Tribune.
